TOPTON DAY BRINGS 4250

Nine Sections of Berks and Adjoining County Citizens Arrive in Gettysburg on Autumn Leaf Excursion. Jerseyites here.

Almost four thousand excursionists were brought here today by the Reading on the annual Autumn Leaf outing of the Tipton Orphans' School, no less than nine special trains being required to convey 3742 people from the heart of the Berks county region.

The number of the tourists was further increased by an excursion brought in from Southern New Jersey, over the Western Maryland, which carried 514 passengers.

The annual Pennsylvania German excursion was awaited with as much interest this year as ever and people, looking toward making some revenue out of the event, were early on the ground. Refreshment stands were put up near the Reading station on Friday night and it was not long after sunrise this morning when the first backs made their appearance and took their positions at the station. Pretty nearly every small boy who could get local dealers to give them a supply of post cards started in business for himself and things were made easy for the Tiptonites to get rid of their money.

The borough police put in some busy hours during the day collecting licenses for the year. Many local people do this business throughout the summer on Sunday only and then finish their season by taking people over the field on Tipton Day. No license can be collected, it is said, for the Sunday work and as a result the borough authorities have to wait until the visit of the Pennsylvania Germans to collect the licenses. Quite a handsome revenue is usually obtained in this way.

The excursionists looked like every other Tipton day crowd which has ever visited Gettysburg. They came in long trains with the ever present refreshment car, wandered about all day talking "Pennsylvania Dutch" and many of them seemed to have their greatest delight in holding hands. Reading, Lebanon, Allentown and all the nearby small towns and villages sent their quota to swell the big crowd.

FORFEITED $2,500

Early in the season the Ballston Storage and Refrigerator Co., Ballston Springs, New York, bought the apple crop of James Robison, near Winchester at $2.90 per barrel, making a payment of $2500 at the time the sale was negotiated. Within the past week the contract of sale was mutually cancelled, Robison agreeing to keep the $2500 deposit, and the Ballston company being relieved of its obligation to take the apples.

GIVEN PURSE OF GOLD

Miss Bertha B. Herring, of Harrisburg, well known in Adams county, and now engaged as instructor in elocution at the Central High School was presented with a purse of gold by members of the class of 1911 in appreciation of the elocution teacher's work for the class in the presentation of the class day play.

FRUIT GROWERS ENLARGE HALL

Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County Having Capacity of their Hall in Bendersville Doubled. Stage and Other Changes.

The increased interest in fruit growing and the large number of members of the Fruit Growers' Association of the county have made necessary the enlargement of the hall of the association in Bendersville.

The hall has been too small for some time to accommodate the large crowds which gathered, especially for the annual conventions and work has been started now to get the addition and improvements completed before this year's meetings on December 13, 14 and 15.

A stage will be built at the rear of the building 16 x 30 feet. This will be a great improvement as a small platform was the only thing of the kind which could be used in the past. The hall proper is to be doubled in size by the addition of a structure 25 x 40. There will be a basement for use as cloak rooms and other purposes. The stairways to the second story, formerly on the outside of the building, will now be on the interior.

The changes and additions will mean a great deal for the comfort of the fruit growers and their friends and will doubtless help along the general interest in horticulture which has made necessary the improvements.

GLIDDEN TOUR

The eighty three cars in the Glidden tour left New York for Philadelphia this morning and the first of the party are expected to reach Gettysburg about three o'clock Sunday afternoon. The checking in station will be the Weaver store corner. The committee of the Gettysburg Automobile Club will receive the entrants who are expected to bring with them about 275 people who will be quartered at the Eagle, the Hotel Gettysburg and the City Hotel Sunday night. Every member of the party will be given a badge by the local autoists and banners welcoming them to the town will be suspended over the streets. Sunday evening a lecture on "The Battle of Gettysburg" will be given by J. Warren Gilbert in the Wizard for the tourists only. The lecture is provided by the Gettysburg Automobile Club.

SHABBY TREATMENT

The Hagerstown Mail in a fair article says: "Reporters were treated poorly. The power of the press is bucked off down a blind lane. They got in, however, and when they went to cross the quarter stretch they have to run by a side gate and dodge paces, runners and naughty officials. They are not allowed to go through the grand stand, as formerly. They must hunt a red dog hole down by the side of the building. Then across the track for them. Two leading lights of the local skurry tribe had a narrow escape from a runner yesterday."

NEW BOGUS $10 BILLS

The public is warned by the Secret Service against a new counterfeit $10 bill. This spurious bill on the Crocker Bank of San Francisco is the series of 1902-1908, bears the check letter F., and the names of Charles H. Treat, and W. T. Vernon as Treasurer of the United States and Register of the Treasury, respectively. It would deceive only an inexperienced handler of money.

DISCUSSED TWO SCHOOL TOPICS

Parent Teachers' Association of Gettysburg Met in Regular Monthly Session and Talked of Matters of Importance.

The Parent-Teachers' Association held their second meeting for this year Friday evening, in the new High School building. Though the attendance was small the meeting did not lack interest and enthusiasm.

The general business of the association consisted of the regular order, and the reading of a letter of acceptance from the Mothers' Congress, wherein they expressed their appreciation of the invitation extended by the local association to hold their annual convention in this place in the early part of October, 1912.

Having dispensed with the general business, Mrs. Will M. Seligman, delegate to the Mothers' Congress convention in Williamsport, this year, gave an excellent report setting forth many good points that could be brought to pass through the co-operation of parent and teacher for the educational welfare of the pupil. Some of the points emphasized were the close relation of home and school; crime is not ascribed to the juvenile, the fault lies with the parent; parent's mistake of letting children learn by instinct; divine sacredness of marriage; the white plague; the place of forestry in school; the teacher must return to children's ways, sow seeds of virtue, personality, attention, perseverance and give her entire self in her work in order to be effective.

Following this report a paper was read by Mrs. G. W. Sherrick, on the subject of "Where Pupils Fail and the Teacher's Viewpoint" in which she stated that the parents' viewpoint is, in part, that of an interested party who has made an investment, and is looking for results. The intelligent parent who has children in the public schools shares a sense of proprietorship in the schools. They are his schools and he wants them to be successful and is always gratified when the general impression of success is observed, and he always attributes their success to the efficiency of the teacher. On the other hand when public opinion reflects a less satisfactory condition, an inferiority, the teachers are correspondingly discredited and blamed.

Parents expect success on the teacher's part in spite of their own mistakes. A point wherein intelligent parents see mistakes is the part of teachers in school government. The teacher must be quiet, firm and efficient. Pupils come home and tell what this or that or the other boy or girl said or did and what the teacher did or did not do, and an unfavorable impression is made on the parent's mind. The fault is probably that the teacher lacks unique personality of the born teacher. The home talk, of course, gives an imperfect impression of the school, but when they tell of lectures and threats that are never carried out, and little whippings and shakings that are only laughed at it is an infallible indication that both self government and school management are weak. The teacher who makes these mistakes is compelled to use the rod, and this for the average scholar is wrong according to the teacher's viewpoint, not because it is done but because the intelligent parent sees that it would not need to be right.

The second point they emphasized was that teachers permit pupils to slip through the recitation and monthly examination largely on copied work. Though the parent may be to blame yet the teacher is the professional authority and must be held responsible. In the third place, parents, admitting the moral weakness of the children think too much is expected of them, the tests offered are too severe for juvenile human nature, for example having scholars report on their own conduct or on their work. The trouble is that they will invariably lie about it, and as practice develops skill they are likely to make rapid progress in the art of deception.

H. B. Brown, read a paper on the same subject and Rev. F. E. Taylor made a few remarks.

The next meeting will be held November 10th.

ITALIANS LOSE 1600 IN BATTLE

Fierce Fight Occurred on Hill Near Tripoli.

RUSHING TROOPS TO SCENE

Advance Into Interior Is Delayed, Awaiting the Arrival of Reinforcements.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Oct. 14.—The Frankfurter Zeitung's correspondent at Constantinople forwards a dispatch dated Tripoli, saying:
 "A fierce engagement occurred between the Turks and Italians on a hill in the neighborhood of the city. The Italians lost 1600 killed and wounded. The Turkish casualties were slight."
 There is no confirmation of the dispatch, which is at variance with recent Tripolitan news reaching here through other channels.

Expel Italian Journalists.
 Constantinople, Oct. 14.—The government ordered the expulsion within twenty-four hours of all Italian correspondents in Constantinople.

A society has been organized to wage an economic war against Italy. All Ottomans are asked to sign a declaration undertaking on oath to cease all dealings with Italians. The newspapers, endorsing this campaign, advise Ottomans to inculcate the young with a hatred for Italy and Italians.
 A prize court has been formed to deal with the captures of war, which up to the present time include two tramp steamers, a yacht, a motorboat and several tugs, lighters and steam launches.

Prepares 15,000 More Men For Tripoli.
 Rome, Oct. 14.—Although the government considers that the present expedition of 40,000 men will be sufficient for the complete occupation of Tripoli, the ministry of war has prepared for an additional expedition in case of need.

This is composed of six regiments of foot soldiers, including two from the regular infantry, two from the Alpine district and two of sharpshooters, with a contingent of cavalry and artillery, numbering in all fifteen thousand men. This reserve force is prepared to reach Tripoli within forty-eight hours.

A report from Tripoli says that General Caneva, commander-in-chief of the Italian forces there, is awaiting the arrival of the final contingent of the first expedition before he begins a march into the interior.

Four aeroplanes have arrived in Rome from France. They will be sent to Tripoli, where it is proposed to make first experiments in the use of flying machines in actual warfare. They will be piloted by Italian officers, who will undertake to drop bombs into the enemy's encampments.

LEITER RAPS WALL STREET

Says Financiers Are the Only Persons Complaining.

London, Oct. 14.—In an interview here Joseph W. Leiter said he disagreed with the pessimistic views of James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, as to the condition of things in the United States.

Mr. Leiter said: "The condition of things in the United States at the present moment is favorable enough to the people, but very bad indeed for gentlemen who manufacture securities for sale. The trouble is that those who manufacture chronas cannot sell them. If you get away from New York everybody is quite happy and everything is all right. They always have faces as long as horses in New York."

BANDITS HOLD MINE OWNER

Cuban Kidnappers Demand Ransom of $20,000 For Release of Man.

Santiago, Cuba, Oct. 14.—Pedro Aguilera, a mining engineer, mine owner and member of the Spanish American Iron company, according to a report received here, was seized by bandits and is held for a ransom of $20,000.

The kidnapping is said to have taken place on the company's property at El Cuero mines.

Brakeman Killed at Coatesville.

Coatesville, Pa., Oct. 14.—William Miller, aged thirty-five, a brakeman in the Coatesville yard of the Reading railway, while stepping from the side to the front of a moving locomotive, grabbed a poker instead of a stationary bar. He was thrown under the wheels of the engine and killed.

Badly Burned by "Voodoo" Cure.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 14.—A "voodoo" cure for rheumatism exploded in the home of Mrs. Mary Wynn, fifty-one years old, and enveloped her in a mass of flames. She was badly burned and may not recover. The oil was placed in a pan on the top of the stove to be heated prior to its application.

Matches Fatal Playthings.

Clifton Heights, Pa., Oct. 14.—Margery Duffy, aged two years and seven months, was burned to death as a result of playing with matches. The child was seated on the porch at her home when she struck a match. The flames soon ignited her dress and in an instant she was a pillar of flames.

WHO PAYS THE FIDDLER?

There is little question that $600,000, 000 would hardly cover the loss which egg producers the country over sustain yearly through the careless marketing of rotten, stale, cracked or dirty eggs. Doubtless those who market this kind of trash have the idea that they "come one" on the retail dealer when they load him up with eggs of questionable reputation, but the fact of the matter is that, while the first buyer seems to bear the bur-

GETS $20,000 FOR HIS LEGS

It Is Charged Railroad's Negligence Caused Accident.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Harrison H. Stewart, a former brakeman, recovered a verdict of $20,000 against the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey for the loss of his legs in an accident in the railroad yards at Bethlehem Junction, on Aug. 6, 1907.

The case was tried before Judge Carr and a jury in room H. of common pleas court No. 4, and its culmination records one of the largest awards of damages in a personal injury suit given in the local courts for several years.

"CORPSE" COMES TO LIFE

Regains Consciousness in Undertaker's and Shouts "Take Me Out of Here."

Chicago, Oct. 14.—While being carried into an undertaking establishment on the West Side, David Easley, thirty-two years old, of La Grange, Ill., who was thought to be dead, suddenly regained consciousness and shouted: "Take me out of here; I'm not going to die yet."

Easley may recover from injuries sustained when he was struck on the head with a rifle while quarreling with Roscoe Holtz over a woman.

SPECULATORS CONTROL BASE BALL TICKETS

Managers of Big Leagues Out For the Money.

New York, Oct. 14.—The nastiest scandal in the history of base ball has resulted from the sale of the World's Series tickets by the National Exhibition company, which is the New York National club's trade name.

Speculators were able to get 8000 tickets, which they were selling for $6 to $20 apiece. Thousands of people who have supported the Giants in good years and had been told at the St. James building, the headquarters of the club, that if they wanted tickets they would have to go to those that had them for sale. If they didn't go quickly enough they got a shove to help them along.

The clean, sportsmanlike side of the contest, which began today between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants, was utterly clouded by the undisguised efforts of persons interested in the commercial possibilities of the national game to grab every dollar that wasn't chained down. As a result there will be an investigation by postoffice inspectors, who think there was a misuse of the mails by the national commission, whose business it is to keep base ball free from grafters and crooks, and by Police Commissioner Waldo, who will try to undo, as much as possible the harm that has been accomplished by putting thousands of the polo grounds best seats into the hands of speculators.

THE SAME IN QUAKER CITY

Big Speculators Selling Base Ball Tickets at $10 Apiece.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—With thousands of disappointed applicants for World Series tickets in Philadelphia, the much-sought-for pasteboards are fairly plentiful—at $10 apiece. The big speculators in this city will fill orders "to any reasonable amount" at that price.

These same speculators not only have tickets for the local games, but for the New York contests as well. In fact, they admit that they are better able to fill orders for the latter games—that, of course, $10 apiece.

It is to be reasonably assumed that the speculators had a large number of advance orders for seats, and as they have many on sale now, it follows that these "advance orders" have been taken care of. Just how many seats they received is hard to tell, but how they got them is still harder.

Meanwhile the banks were kept busy cashing in returned checks drawn to the order of the Athletic Base Ball club. At practically every bank and trust company in town these checks were returned by disappointed applicants.

BEATEN TO DEATH WITH A ROCK

Murderer Tells He Silenced His Friend.

END OF DRUNKEN ORGY

Sixteen Troopers Capture Man Near Pottsville, Who Beat Friend to Death With a Rock.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 14.—"He would not listen to me, so I silenced him," declared Thomas Kanpiskey calmly as he walked into his boarding house at St. Clair.

That Kanpiskey had indeed silenced him was evidenced when the body of his companion, Anthony Petcheskie, was found on the highway, with the head badly mutilated.

This occurred on Thursday, but it was not until Friday that the circumstances became known and Kanpiskey was placed under arrest, his bloody shirt being mute evidence of the deed. The accused man told his boarding mistress that he was in company with the murdered man and they had a fight with some people. Afterwards they drank some at St. Clair and started for home. On the way they had a dispute and Kanpiskey said he knocked his victim down.

The man began yelling, and in order to silence him Kanpiskey struck him with a rock. "Oh, be merciful," pleaded the victim, but his cries were silenced by even more terrible blows from a rock.

District Attorney Lyons has decided to put the prisoner on trial at the November term of court.

As soon as the crime was reported sixteen of the most experienced state troopers were sent throughout the county and several to the scene of the crime. They soon discovered that Kanpiskey was the last man seen with the slain man.

The troopers went to Kanpiskey's boarding house, where they learned that he had left. The squad of sixteen followed several clues by which they succeeded in tracing the suspected man to Duncott, to the home of his cousin, Dominic Kanpiskey.

TAFT DEFENDS TREATIES

Says Prosperity of Nicaragua and Honduras Lie In Move.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 14.—President Taft's first important speech in California was delivered here from the steps of the state capitol building.

The president spoke in behalf of proposed treaties with Nicaragua and Honduras and vigorously defended the policy of the administration, which he said "muck-raking journals" have labeled "dollar diplomacy."

Broadly speaking, Mr. Taft said the proposed treaties with these countries before the senate would secure for them a financial agent in the United States which would settle their existing debts on a just basis and which would point the road to peace and prosperity to two republics, rich in natural resources, but torn by strife and revolution.

Mr. Taft pointed out the efficacy of a similar arrangement with Santo Domingo, where this government collects the customs and sees that foreign debts are paid, exercising a beneficent supervision that Mr. Taft said has accented to the upbuilding of Santo Domingo.

Objection to the treaties in the United States senate, the president said, was based largely on the proposition that they would make entangling alliances with republics in this hemisphere for the promotion of a banking contract, since the money for the payment of the debts of the two republics would be furnished by American interests.

Another objection discussed by the president was that the Monroe doctrine was a sufficient bond between the United States and the Latin-American republics.

"It is objected that this is 'dollar diplomacy,'" said Mr. Taft, "and that we ought to have none of it. Give a dog a bad name and you know what follows. To call a piece of statecraft 'dollar diplomacy' is to invoke the condemnation of the muck-raking journals, whose chief capital is the use of phrases of a lurid character."

Took 700 Years to Get $5.04.

Morrice, Mich., Oct. 14.—August Wilcox, the oldest resident of Shiawassee county, who for nearly seventy years has been trying to collect $5.04 from Uncle Sam, has at last succeeded, minus his interest. Wilcox was postmaster at Bridgewater, Mich., under President Tyler, and some time after he was succeeded in the position he learned that he had some money coming to him. Recently the proper identification papers reached Washington and the check came back in a hurry.

Laughter Caused Death.

Boston, Oct. 14.—Literally splitting his sides with laughter while witnessing a comedy in a Boston theater, Thomas M. Ryan ruptured a blood vessel near his heart and died shortly afterwards.

It is a record that was kept of 258,996 cases of eggs that were shipped to New York city from several states last year. It was found that of this enormous amount 35 per cent, or 90,648 cases, were either rotten, cracked, stale or dirty. There should be something in these figures to make hen men think.

PEKIN MENACED BY REBELS

Fate of Chinese Dynasty Hangs in Balance.

FOREIGN MARINES LANDED

Forces Under Japanese Admiral Will Protect All Concessions — Rumor
That Republic Has Been Proclaimed.

Pekin, China, Oct. 14.—China faces an unprecedented crisis. With the spread of revolutionary activity, the opinion is gaining ground that the fate of the ruling dynasty hangs in the balance.

The revolution is no longer confined to the central provinces, a thousand miles away from the capital. Pekin itself is threatened. Members of the cabinet admitted that the garrison is known to be home-southern with the revolutionary sentiment. The same condition exists in the two great military posts which guard the capital, Pao-Ting-Fu and Tientsin.

There are still official attempts to minimize the gravity of the situation, but the reports reaching the capital give little basis for hope. The news included reports that Chung-King was in danger, that I-Chang had been taken, that Yo-Chow had fallen, and that communication between Hankow and Chang-Sha, the capital of Hunan province, was interrupted. Yo-Chow is about eighty miles southwest of Wu-Chang.

An edict offers pardon to all revolutionists "who were coerced into joining the rebellion." The pardon is conditional, however, on their expressing suitable repentance for their defection.

The government followed up their act of cashing the viceroy of Wu-Chang by extending the same treatment to General Chang Pao, the commander of the troops in the Wu-Chang district, where this week's outbreak began.

Every effort of the authorities for the present will be concentrated in an attempt to provide adequate defense for the capital of the empire. The program for the autumn maneuvers in Kai Fong, 400 miles south of Pekin, where 30,000 troops were to have participated in extensive drills, was cancelled, and the sixth division of the army was ordered to entrain for Fong Tai, a suburb of Pekin.

The government in its reports on the situation is attempting to convey the impression that the revolutionists are without trained leaders or adequate organization. But the revolutionists have a reliable chief, well versed in military affairs, in General Li Quan Hong. Secret advices indicate, moreover, that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, whom the revolutionists hope to elect president of a Chinese republic, was at Shanghai last week and may now be on the scene of operations at Wu-Chang or Hankow.

Official reports say that at least 10,000 and possibly 15,000 Chinese soldiers have mutinied in the province of Hu-Peh. It is believed that they captured thirty modern field guns at Wu-Chang. According to unconfirmed reports the revolutionists occupied Chang-Sha on Tuesday.

It is reported that the rebels have captured not only the large government arsenal at Han-Yang, but also the mint, with 2,000,000 taels in silver bullion. It is expected that at any moment a sympathetic outbreak may be announced at Canton, and there is also danger of a mutiny at Nankin and other large centers.

The allied foreign marines have landed and are protecting the foreign concessions under command of the Japanese Admiral Kawashima, the head of the third squadron of the Japanese navy. The Chinese gunboats are anchoring off the foreign concessions for their own safety.

Chinese Revolutionists Said to Have Elected Army Officer President.

The advices say that they have elected Li Yuan Hung, lieutenant commander of the imperial new army, as president.

Seventy Dead at Austin.

Austin, Pa., Oct. 14.—Two bodies were recovered from the wreckage. One was that of Adam Brodt, aged sixty-two years, who lived almost immediately under the dam when it was washed away on Sept. 30. The other body, that of a woman, was so badly mutilated that like most others heretofore found it has been impossible to identify it. This makes the total number of bodies recovered seventy, out of seventy-four persons supposed to have been missing.

BATHTUB TRUST MUST DISSOLVE

Government Wins Civil Suit
Against Combine.

Baltimore, Oct. 14.—In the United States circuit court here Judge John C. Rose gave a decision in favor of the government in its dissolution suit against the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing company and others, the so-called "bathtub trust." Judge Pritchard concurred with Judge Rose, while Judge Goff dissented.

The decision is most sweeping in its character. Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to the United States attorney, said United States District Attorney John Philip Hill, of Baltimore, who conducted the case for the government, stated that the decision supports the government's contention on every point.

The action was brought under the Sherman anti-trust law. In case of an appeal it will go direct to the United States supreme court. While this decision is in a separate case from the criminal action against the alleged trust at Detroit, the proceedings concern the same subject and are against the same defendants.

Under the court's ruling Edwin L. Wayman, patentee of an enamel dredger, who issued licenses of the patent to the defendant concerns, is held as much subject to the laws governing monopolies as any other man, and while he still has the right to exclude all others from making use of his patents, "he cannot have the right to sell indulgences" in violation of the anti-trust act.

It was on the patent holdings of Wayman that the fifty defendants in the case upheld the right of their action in the combine, and the government maintained that this was but a subterfuge.

According to the prevailing opinion the enamelware put out by the concerns, although manufactured by means of the automatic dredger of Wayman, is absolutely unpatented and any one may sell it as freely as a loaf of bread.

ASSERT ARBUCKLES CORNERED COFFEE

Sensational Market Advance Follows Report.

New York, Oct. 14.—Arbuckle Brothers & Co., according to stories circulated in lower Wall street, have cornered the coffee market. The consumer now has to pay the price that the firm dictates for two of the things he uses most—sugar and coffee.

Following the already sensational advances of the last several weeks, there was a jump of practically a cent a pound in the New York coffee market—one of the biggest price movements in the history of the trade, that arrived December contracts up to 14.15 or 15 in five points of the recently predicted 15-cent level.

Business surpassed in volume any thing ever noted except in times of extreme excitement and approximately 100,000 bags for the day. The market closed only a few points off from the top with the tone steady at prices that ranged anywhere from 78 to 102 points above the closing figures of last Wednesday.

TIMELY HINTS FOR FARMERS

Care of Harness.

Harness perishes very quickly if neglected, but if reasonable care is exercised it will last for years. Plated harness should not be kept in the stables, as the gases arising from the decomposition of the excreta tarnish the fittings. Immediately the harness is brought in the dust should be carefully wiped off with a soft cloth or leather and mud or sweat removed by washing with water, but on no account using too much. The bits should be well washed in clean water, thoroughly dried and rubbed over with a little neatfoot oil. The leather should be kept soft and pliable by using some dressing. Any one of the proved commercial compositions is suitable and cheap.

Heavy harness does not require the same attention, but it must be kept pliable and tough by oiling at regular intervals. Leather which is not treated soon becomes hard under our dry conditions and cracks, while the stitching decays. A very suitable dressing is pure neatfoot oil. Some very effective and cheap mixtures are on the market for dressing heavy harness.—American Cultivator.

Light and Air For Hens.

It won't do to keep a lot of hens and expect them to be busy and lay in a dark or uncomfortable building. They prefer a light, dry, roomy place, where each hen can exercise freely and without hindrance from the others. They will never care to scratch, however, if they are fed every time they appear hungry. They must be compelled to scratch and work for their food.

We do not advise the limiting of the food, says Farm Progress. Give them plenty, but only in the litter, where they must work and scratch for each grain. Throw the grain in leaves, cut straw, cut hay or any other kind of litter and at night give them a good feed in a trough, composed of a mixture, but during the day make them work hard.

At first they may not be inclined to accept such conditions, but unless they scratch let them go hungry. Scratching means eggs, for it keeps them in health.

Chicken Diseases.

Canker is a disgusting ailment, but generally in the start it can be checked by several applications of fine salt rubbed on the sore spots.

Four drops of acetic acid in a half pint of drinking water, given daily for a week or more, is effective in cases of catarrh.

Chicken pox can be successfully treated by anointing the head and wattles with carbolic vaseline after having first bathed well with hot water. A one grain quinine pill should also be given each night for a week.

A one grain quinine pill given each night for three nights or a week will also work wonders in cases of colds.

Value of Cinders.

A few years ago great heaps of cinders piled up, often being dumped into low places where new earth was needed. Manufacturing concerns were glad to get rid of the accumulations. But now the cinders are in great demand for use in the foundation for cement and concrete work. They form a perfect drainage material, and it has been found that frost acts very lightly on them. Furthermore, concrete work in which cinders are used is said to be of extreme durability. When cinders are ground and mixed with cement the mass becomes very hard.

RACING YACHT MISSING

Vessel With Crew of 24 Men Long Overdue.

Kiel, Germany, Oct. 14.—The racing schooner Nordstern, owned by Dr. C. Harries, of Kiel, which sailed from Gibraltar on Sept. 26 for Kiel, with a crew of twenty-four men, is missing.

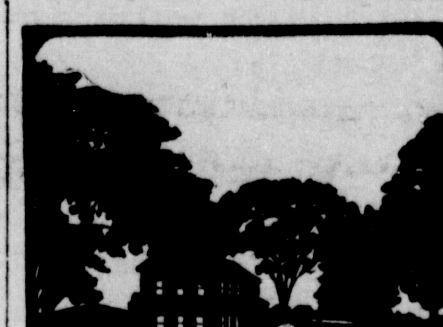

The Nordstern was formerly Emperor Williams' yacht, Meteor III. She was built in America and was christened in 1902 by Miss Alice Roosevelt, now Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

Her Corset Stops Bullet.

Phillipsburg, N. J., Oct. 14.—A bullet from a rifle fired on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware river by a boy shooting at a mark shattered a window at the residence of Charles Pirth, in this place, and struck Mrs. Pirth. The latter was saved from serious injury by a steel in her corset that deflected the bullet. She was slightly hurt.

A majority of folks who plant potatoes select good looking seed from the bin in the spring. This method of selection insures type and size, perhaps, but it overlooks one of the most important factors in connection with potato raising—namely, yield. The only way to get around this is to go into the field from which one wishes to secure seed and dig enough hills with a fork to give the desired amount of seed. By this plan it is possible to select potatoes that are of good size and proper type and also those from hills in which the yield has been best.

Co-operation is in essence a sort of generous and unselfish endeavor, and quite naturally it follows that the instances where it most frequently fails is where a spirit of greed and selfishness creeps in on the part of those who are unwilling to pay a fair price for management or who do not think they are realizing from the enterprise as much as they should. Often failure is directly traceable to those who prove false to a given enterprise and withdraw patronage because of a little more tempting bait held out temporarily by the real foes of the co-operative principle, but who for the time being appear in the guise of the special friend of the fellow who is looking for a large return.
